Good sized two bedroom semi detached accommodation, tasteful presentation, a stylish kitchen, cellar and a lovely rear garden are amongst the virtues awaiting you here at number 31.

This home is situated in a well regarded location, just half a mile from Woodsmoor Train station and a short stroll to the A6 for bus routes. Shops and schools (Great Moor Primary School, Stockport, School and Stockport Grammar) are alluringly close by too. Stepping Hill Hospital is less than half a mile away.

From the entrance hall, with stripped wood floors set off against the neutral decor, step into the reception room to the left situated to the front. Stripped wood floors feature in this room and the rear reception room too.

Ahead off the hall is another reception room a staircase to the first floor runs central between the two rooms. Off the rear reception room, step into a stylish kitchen.

Back to the hall and head upstairs to the first floor where the landing is the gateway to a spacious front bedroom, a good size bedroom to the rear and the white three piece bathroom/w.c.

Outside, there is a small garden frontage and a path to the front door.

To the rear there is a pretty garden laid mainly to lawn and enhanced by its outlook to garden area of St Saviours Church. For those of you with a thirst for local knowledge, St Saviour's was founded in 1879 as a chapel to St George. It became a district church in 1934
